Lessons You Can Learn from (Others') Employment Litigation War Stories!

Mark your calendar for this 60 minute webinar

DATE: Tuesday, February 16, 2010

TIME: 10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

With an increase in employment litigation, many employers have a litigation “war story” and a corresponding “lesson learned.” Drawing upon the collective experiences of our employment law attorneys, this webinar will discuss our top 10 employment litigation war stories (protecting the confidentiality of the parties, of course) and what you can learn from them to prevent a similar occurrence in your company.

We will discuss lessons learned in recent cases to help you avoid these and other litigation pitfalls:

- Covert recordings by an employee in an attempt to support his claims;
- Surprising testimony from a plaintiff’s spouse in trial;
- The helpful and not so helpful emails located in discovery;
- Beware the third party subpoena (the good, the bad and the ugly);
- Preparing a lawsuit from the “inside” by the disgruntled employee;
- And more!
