

Volume 11, Issue 42 • October 21, 2022

This Summary Contains Confidential and Privileged Information Pursuant to a Confidentiality Agreement and the Attorney-Client Privilege.
DO NOT DISTRIBUTE OR SHARE WITH NON-MEMBERS.

AEP

AEP Increases Storm Damage Recovery Rider (Case No. 22-399-EL-RDR)

Summary: AEP increased its Storm Damage Recovery Rider to $8.32/month from $3.11/month for non-residential customers. This new rate will go into effect the first billing cycle of November 2022.

AES Ohio

OMAEG Participates in AES' ESP IV Technical Conference (Case Nos. 22-900-EL-SSO, et al.)

Summary: The PUCO held a technical conference in which AES explained the various features contained in its electric security plan, including the dozen above-market riders and three new tariffs, and interested parties asked questions.

Notably, AES confirmed that aside from its rider to recover SSO auction costs, none of the proposed riders are by-passable.

PUCO Approves AES Increasing its Tax Savings Credit (Case No. 19-568-EL-ATA)

Summary: The PUCO approved AES' application to increase its Tax Savings Credit to 2.7532% of base distribution charges from 2.1912% of base distribution charges.